

Think: What is an embedded clause?

1. Complete these sentences by adding in an embedded clause (extra information about the noun)

The car, _____, is parked at the end of the road.

A cat, _____, was stuck in the tree.

On Friday, the band, _____, will perform in London.

2. Rewrite these sentences by adding in an embedded clause. Don't forget to include the correct punctuation!

The dog ran down the road.

An old, lady climbed on the bus to go to the shop.

Next to the lake, I saw ducks eating bread.

3. Choose a challenge to complete.

Challenge 1:

Underline the Embedded Clauses in these sentences and circle the Relative Pronoun:

Kane, who was trying to escape, was attacked by his nemesis.

The robot, which was malfunctioning, flew away from the fight.

Add an Embedded Clause to these sentences:

The villain _____ _____ was hiding behind the boxes.

The steel pipe _____ _____ was wrapped around the man.

Lesson 10

WALT: use embedded clauses.

Now write your own sentences with Embedded Clauses:

Challenge 2: Using the Where's Wally? pictures or any pictures you have at home, write sentences containing embedded clauses.

E.G. The crowd, who were excited about the game, cheered as the ball neared the

