

Lesson 14

WALT: innovate a story from another culture.

Lesson 15

WALT: box-up an innovated story from another culture.

Lesson 14

Think: What ways can you innovate a text?

Substitution	Addition	Alteration	Change of viewpoint

e.g. substitute the boy for a girl	e.g. add in an extra character (boy and girl)	e.g. nobody comes to help the boy (How would this alter the end of the story?)	e.g. retell in a different format (e.g. a diary entry) or tell the story from the viewpoint of a different character

1. Using your text map or the written text, innovate (make simple changes) to the story.

Girl

Egypt

E.G. The Boy Who Saved the Netherlands

A large part of the Netherlands used to be Egypt sand under the sea, but now the...

2. Create new actions for the changes you have made. We would love to see you perform the innovated text map!

Lesson 14

WALT: innovate a story from another culture.

Lesson 15

WALT: box-up an innovated story from another culture.

Lesson 15

1. Complete the innovated section on your boxed-up plan (from lesson 6). Remember to bullet point the key parts.