Name of book: You're all my favourites.

Author: Sam McBratney

Summary of book: Do you come from a large family? Have you lots of siblings? Do you think you are the favourite? This charming book follows the thoughts and worries of three young bears who want to understand why their parents think they are so wonderful. Hear Mummy and Daddy bear share their reasons as to why they love each baby bear and how they are all different and unique in their own special ways. It is the perfect story to share, to remind all little bear cubs how much they are loved.
