

Compound Nouns

Warm-Up

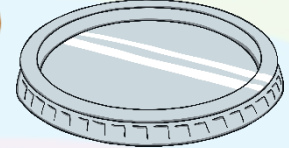

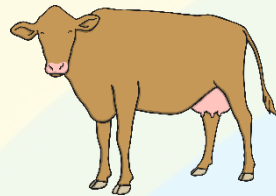

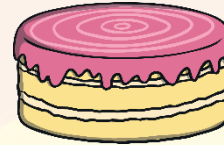

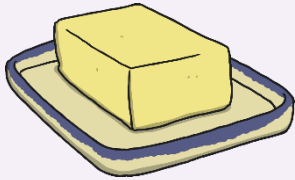

Lesson 4
English
Thursday 4th June 2020

Work through the slides and complete the mini activities on the pages.

Compound nouns

Compound nouns are written as one word. They are called compound words because they are two words joined together to make one new word.

Can you match up these pictures to make compound nouns? Can you write the compound words you have made?

eye + lid = eyelid

Can you use one of the compound words you have made in a sentence? e.g. The cowboy ate the cupcake.

Can you read the clues to fill in the compound nouns.

I wash my dishes in the d___w___.

In the morning I am woken up by the bright d___l___.

Zion bought a pet g___f___ at the aquarium.

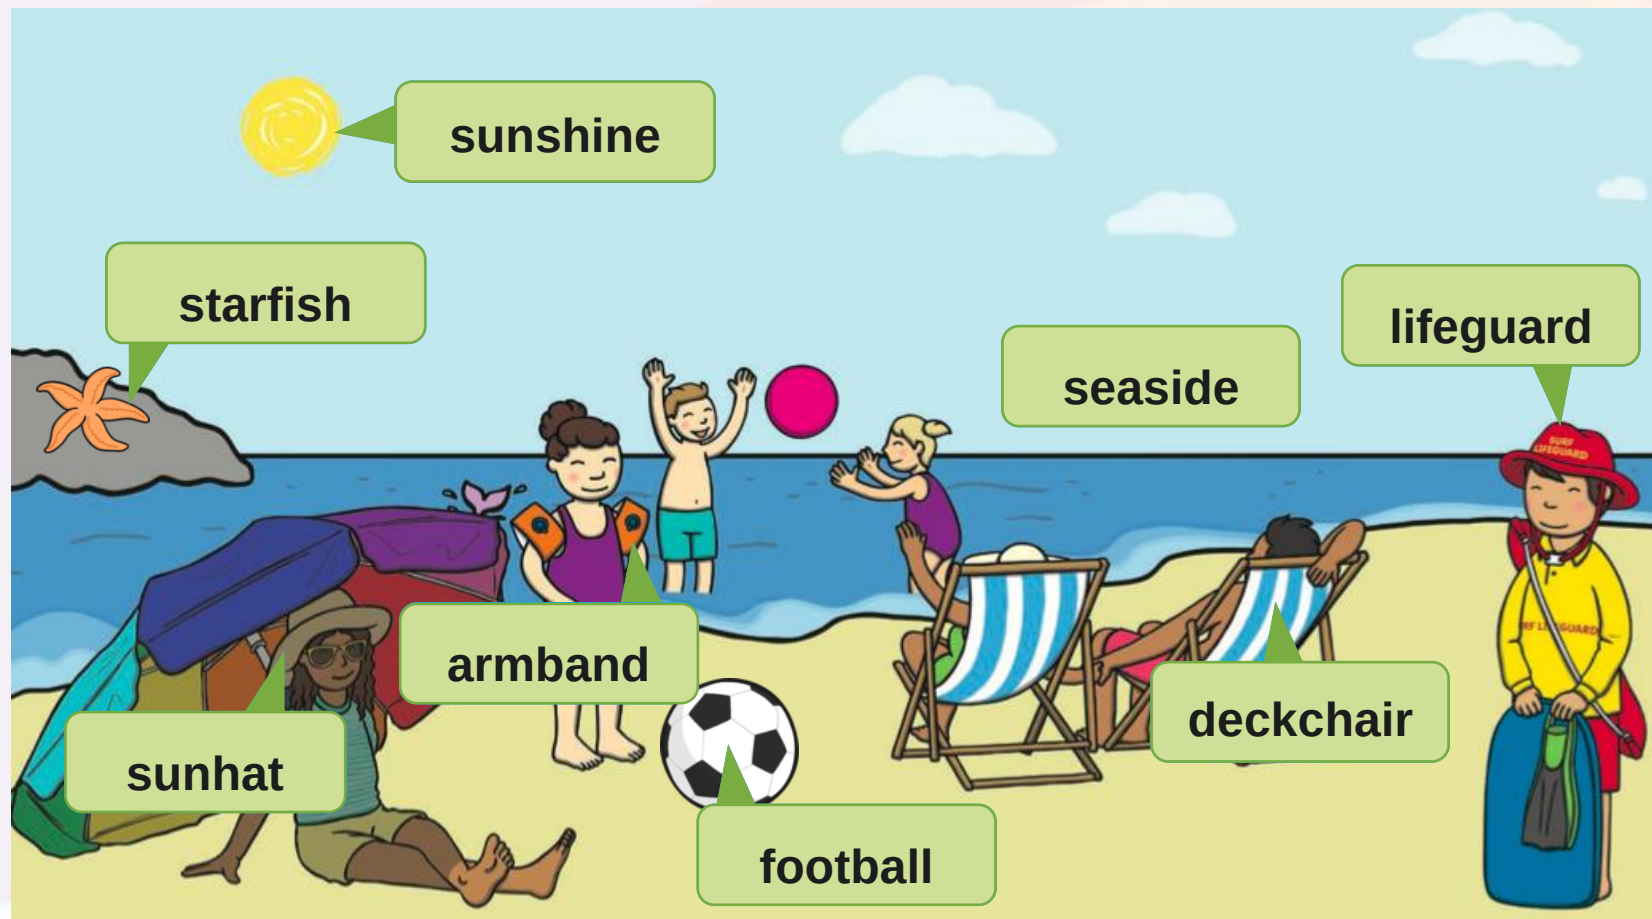

After the rain there is often a r___b___.

A bridge that you walk over by foot is called a f___b___.

My sister listens to music on her h___p___.

When it gets dark in the sky we know that it is n___t___.

Can you spot all the compound words in this picture? Can you write a sentence using two of the compound words in this picture?

Example answer: I sat in my deckchair and enjoyed the sunshine.

Can you spot all the compound words in this picture? Can you write a sentence using two of the compound words in this picture?

Example answer: The girl has a snowball in one hand and a gingerbread man in the other.

Can you write a different sentence using different words?