

LESSON 3

How many wheels would 3 buses have?

How many shoes would 9 children need?

There are 7 dogs. Each dog eats 5 bones. How many bones would Tim need to buy?

A baker makes a tray of 30 biscuits. He shares them equally between 10 children. How many biscuits does each child get?

If 12 taxis arrive at the party at the same time carrying 5 passengers each. How many passengers arrive at the same time?

9 people came to watch a show. They each paid £5. How much was the ticket sales altogether?

Harry is sharing biscuits between himself and his four brothers. He shares a packet of 35 biscuits. How many does each person get?